About Brionté

I moved around a lot when I was growing up because my mom served in the Air Force for 20 years. When I moved to Georgia at 10 years old, I fell in love with the trees and people. I knew then that I wanted to live in Atlanta. I made my way to the city and attended Georgia State University where I earned my degree in Public Policy. I started my family right here in southwest Atlanta because it is a beautiful community with wonderful people and a great legacy. Yet, parts of the district have been neglected. Many of us feel unheard and left behind. That is changing now and investment is on its way. If we want our community to thrive again we must make sure everyone is a part of shaping our vision for a better southwest Atlanta, and that everyone is positioned for success.

As a wife, mother of a two year old, activist and community organizer I am uniquely positioned to lead our district in this time of transition. In 2014 I helped lead the effort to expand MARTA to Clayton County. Thousands of people, businesses, pastors, and community leaders came together to make it happen. This wasn't just about expanding transit; we were helping to improve lives. Now more than ever I believe that when we come together, we have the power to shape the community we want to see.

MY PLAN FOR A BETTER ATLANTA:

Keeping You Informed and Involved

Do you believe our city's leaders are working for you? Do you trust them to do the right thing? For too many people in Atlanta the answer is no. We need to restore trust between the city and all of its residents. As your city council representative, I will prioritize being available to you. I will make sure to stay informed and keep you involved, because I know the best ideas come from the people. Let me work with you and for you. This means:

- I will always be open and honest about what I know
- I will have a responsive office that will partner with you
- Giving you more opportunities to choose the kind of growth you want
- Listening to your concerns about the budget

Improving Our Neighborhoods

I want Southwest Atlanta to thrive again, even better than before. Many of my neighbors have reminisced about the old days when a person could buy everything they needed and get everything done right on Campbellton and Cascade Roads. I commit to bringing our communities back to life. Our neighborhoods should be clean, healthy, and easy to move around. I will work to make sure our streets and parks are taken care of and our businesses are thriving. This means:

- Ending blight in our communities
- Fixing our roads and sidewalks, and improving bike lanes and transit access
- Attracting more major and small businesses to Cascade Road, Campbellton Road, Greenbriar Mall and more
- Cleaning up the trash and stopping the dumping in our community
- Building healthier communities and advancing sustainability

A City That Works for Everyone

As your city council representative, I will continue to advance Dr. King's vision of the Beloved Community. I want our seniors, veterans, young people, low-income people and everyone else to be taken care of. Everyone deserves a quality home and jobs with higher wages. I will work to make our community safer, and to ensure we have great schools and childcare so our kids can learn and grow.

- Fighting crime through prevention and investing in our police force
- Expanding our affordable housing policies to make sure our seniors, veterans, and low-income people can stay in their homes
- Strengthening the city's relationship with Atlanta Public Schools and investing in early childhood education
- Providing job training through partnerships
- Improving access to healthcare

Tuesday, November 7 is Election Day!
Polls are open from 7:00 am to 7:00 pm.
